Re: Barry Dynkin and Semyon Dynkin v. Ben-Zion Alcalay, et al
Case No.: 22-cv-01950

This Firm represents Defendants, Ben-Zion Alcalay (“Ben-Zion”), Benjamin Alcalay (“Benjamin”), Eliahu Alcalay (“Eli”) and 18BlackBears, LLC (“18BlackBears”) in the action. Defendants respectfully request an adjournment of the conference scheduled for January 11, 2022, or alternatively, the conference be conducted remotely.

I am a single father and my eleven-year-old daughter tested positive for Covid today and has symptoms. My daughter will be quarantined with me for the next five days. Therefore, I am unable to appear at the in-person conference scheduled for January 11, 2022. I am able to appear at that time for a remote conference if the Court so desires, or I respectfully request that the conference be adjourned.

The Defendants and counsel thank the Court for its time and attention to this matter

Respectfully submitted,

Jonathan Marc Davidoff, Esq.
